In this program, government officials and experienced practitioners will share their perspectives on recent trends in antitrust law enforcement. The discussion will be of interest to antitrust specialists and to practitioners in other fields alike. Topics will include DOJ and FTC antitrust enforcement priorities and recent civil and criminal matters; the in-house perspective on the current antitrust landscape; the merger review process under the 2023 Merger Guidelines; proposed changes to the Hart-Scott-Rodino pre-merger notification rules and forms, and their practical impact for business; and the revitalized popular interest in antitrust.

The event will be hosted by Judicate West at its offices in downtown Los Angeles. Participants may also attend remotely using Zoom. Lunch will be available for in-person attendees.
